

PUBLIC CALL

FOR PRE-QUALIFICATION OF TENDERERS

TWO PHASE TENDER FOR SELECTION OF:

Engineering Consultant for Detailed Exploration, Extraction & Process Development for Production of DBM & All Evaporites Can be Extracted Economically from Iran Namak Lake

EMCO intends to select an International Engineering Consultant (inhere company) for providing Feasibility Study Report for producing the Evaporites from Namak lake in center of IRAN. The tender will be implemented in two stages. The Services to be provided by the company and its International partner will include but not limited to the following:

- 1-Detailed exploration activities,
- 2-Mining and Process design,
- 3-Feasibility study and site selection.

Phase one: Prequalification

The following information should be printed and delivered before 16 o'clock 6th March 2019.

The required information:

1. The Company registration information
2. Company resume
3. Company reference for the similar projects
4. Key personals and their resumes
5. The nominated project manager, Control project manager and engineering manager who will be assigned for the project and their resume
6. Introducing the local subcontractor(s) (if any)
 - a. The subcontractor registration information
 - b. subcontractor resumes
 - c. subcontractor reference for the similar projects
 - d. Key personals and their resumes
 - e. The nominated project manager who will be assigned for the project and his resume
7. The preliminary Split works between Company and his subcontractor

Note1: Company can introduce more than one subcontractor to EMCO

Note2: The Company is responsible for all scope of works (include subcontractors' division and company).

Note3: EMCO is free to accept or reject company and his contractor without any announcement or explanation. Only the selected company(s) will receive the letter or announcement.

Note4: EMCO can choose company(s), conditionally. Company will be selected if the subcontractor confirmed by EMCO.

EMCO will announce directly to the chosen company(s) in 5 Iranian working days. The chosen company(s) should purchase the tender document in 7 Iranian working days.

Phase Two: Providing Feasibility Study Proposal

Company and his Local subcontractor should Provide Feasibility Study Proposal in 3 weeks with considering the following conditions:

1. Providing all requirements which are introduced in The Tender document
2. Providing technical and commercial proposal
3. offer the best price
4. The final report should be Acceptable by international financiers as basic data.

EMCO is free to accept or reject company proposal(s) without any announcement or explanation. Only the chosen company will be invited for signing the Contract.

For more information or official tender correspondence, please contact EMCO at: info@emco-ir.com

Emdad Mineral Corporation (EMCO)

Address: 2th floor, No.2, Shahid Banisi St, Nelson Mandela Blvd, Tehran, Iran.